

Party Hat

Joe Iconis

GIRL:

here in my railroad apartment tonight we're just taking it slow i threw out my tickets to the opera
'cause nobody wanted to go i thought i'd just sit here contently maybe a crossword, or four but i find myself not feeling satisfied i find myself wanting much more so instead of feeling blue i know just what i'll do

i'm gonna put a party hat on my cat we'll dance around and play pretend i'm gonna wear a golden dress, make such a mess
and never let the good times end neighbors can peek through their winders looking all kinds of confused but me and my feline won't care at all â€™Cause we arenâ€™t easily bruised we'll be laughing and doing the lindy and iâ€™ll be the bell of all things and weâ€™ll make a racket with no regards so we won't hear the phone even if it rings

i'm gonna wear a golden dress, make such a mess
and never let the good times end

im gonna squirt the french perfume around the room and revel in its lovely mist
and thank my lucky stars that he exists

CAT:

i had just finished eatin'™ some friskies she comes at me holdin'™ this hat i'm all like lady you back the hell up i don't want no part of that then i take a look into her big eyes they're sad and a little bit red and i think of the times when she'™s fed me food and i think of the times when she'™s pet my paws and i think of the times when she'™s seen my claws i sigh and jump up on the bed and dutifully lower my head

GIRL:

look i put a party hat on my cat
i'm gonna wear a golden dress, make such a mess

im gonna spray the

BOTH:

french perfume around the room

im gonna put a

party hat on

my cat

me

GIRL:

and thank my lucky stars that he exists

i'm gonna put a party hat on

my cat

BOTH:

i'm gonna wear a golden dress, make such a mess
and never let the good times end

im gonna spray the french perfume

around the room
im gonna put a

party hat on my cat

GIRL:

and thank my lucky stars that he exists

CAT:

you better thank your lucky stars that i exist

BOTH:

weâ€™re gonna thank our lucky stars that we exist
