Hostage

Empires

You stare
With that old an violent feeling
Oh my god, I feel it
It's distancing
You've got me a problem by a minute
I'm just telling everyone you caved
You can never leave
You can never leave
Oh, there is a heaven in the chemicals
An angel in the alchol is burned alive
You reach your high
At least for now your innocent
I'm just telling everyone you've caved
And then you creep
Like a demon in the spotlight
I'm just telling everyone you're my hostage
Hostage
You can never leave
Hostage with you
I struggle with the loneliness
You, you help me
You're the cure for it
I struggle with the loneliness
You, you help me
You're the cure for it
Hostage (You can never leave)
Hostage
Hostage (You can never leave)
Hostage with you
