

Gee and Al

Bodyjar

You say the same thing everytime,
and I can't figure out just why.

I can't feel this way,

I don't need to.

Am I blind 'cause I can't see.

The reason you and I should be.

I don't know what to say,
words might never come your way.

Because everything you do for me,

I would never do for you.

I can't tell you why,

'cause if i try i'd lie to you.

My one track mind, you're too kind.

Can't think of feelings I should show.

For what reasons I don't know.

These things are hard to say.

You know they'll end up complicated.

Because everything you do for me,

I would never do for you.

I can feel you wasting my time.

I can see you trying to read my mind.

So many things you could know.

Well just forget it, just forget it,

I should go.

I feel you wasting my time.

If I tried I'd lie to you,

always say the same things.
