Broken

Firewind

Eyes are open wide your dying slowly
Lost in space and time you're feeling lonely
Shadows moving fast clusters around you
Wisphers in your head your left in confusionIt's breaking my heart to see you walkin' throught the night
It's breaking my heart to see you fall, no one insight
It's breaking my heart you feel you've given up the fight
It's breaking my heart when you can't see what's wrong or rightmmmhhohohohoWalls of shame you see your tired and frozen
You ripped yourself apart you feel like dreamin
You walk on broken glas there's no reaction
A strange erratic breeze no introspectionIt's breaking my heart to see you walkin' throught the night
It's breaking my heart to see you fall, no one insight
It's breaking my heart you feel you've given up the fight
It's breaking my heart when you can't see what's wrong or rightohohohoSo hard to consoleIt's breaking my heart to see you walkin' throught the night
It's breaking my heart to see you fall, no one insight
It's breaking my heart you feel you've given up the fight
It's breaking my heart when you can't see what's wrong or rightDon't wanna see you fall from grace
Don't wanna see you fall from empty space
I lost the best thing that i had i life
Lay your head on my shoulder tonight
