Alone Inside

Scars Of Life

I used to think that you were the best thing for me
I must be blind because I feel so helpless and hopeless we close ourselves out from the world outsideEverything is going to roast between us
the world around us and I won't mind
And this part of you is dead within me
I won't want you I'm alone inside(Reside!)I used to think the views we shared were common
I know you lied
The part of me that lives within you Kill me quickly let the pain subsideEverything is going to roast between us
the world around us and I won't mind
And this part of you is dead within me
I won't want you
(I'm alone inside)Everything is going to roast between us
the world around us and I won't mind
And this part of you is dead within me
I won't want you
(I'm alone inside)Face down
No place to hide
Feel my eyes burn
(Because I'm alone inside)(Yeah)
('Cause I'm alone inside)
(Yeah)
(Yeah)
