

Regular Joe

Indigo Swing

I'm not tryin' to start anything by comin' up to you tonight I know that he's yours now it's sinkin' in with time But tonight I've had to much to drink
And he stays on my mind I just wanted to say he's the best thing you'll ever find 'Cause he ain't your regular Joe ya know and I'm the crazy fool who let him go and if he says he loves you then thats what he means he's the best man I've ever seen I just wanted you to know He ain't your regular Joe She turned to me sharply and said you think I don't know that I can't believe you even spoke to me what nerve you must have I said no you don't understand you don't wanna be in my shoes It took him leavin' me before I ever knew That he ain't your regular joe you know? and I'm the crazy fool that let him go and if he says he loves you then thats what he means He's the best man I've ever seen
I just wanted you to know he ain't your regular joe So she drove home from that bar to say that She was sorry to him
She was wrong to have stormed out to go Somewhere she shouldn't have been
He said hey baby that's okay Everybody has their days That's when she turned to him to say You ain't your regular joe,
You know?
And I don't ever plan to let you go Cause when I say I love you Then that's what I mean You're the best man I've ever seen Oh baby, I love you so You ain't your regular joe
