Like Moths To Flame

Thrice

Once again these bitter herbs

Perfect complement to all your cryptic words

Nod but don't know what to say

I know you and I believe you're who you say you areSo I, I will follow you

Lay down my life

I would die for you

This very nightOnce again the bread and wine
But it seems the meanings may be deeper still this time
You surprised me when you said I'd fall away
Don't you know me? I could never be ashamed of youI, I will follow you

Lay down my life I would die for you

This very nightI've never been this cold

The fire's gravity compels

Like planets cling to soul

I feel my orbit start to failLike moths to flame I come

Too close and all my oaths are burned
As stars begin to run

All my accusers take their turnAnd calling curses down

From my lips lies like poison spill

And then that awful sound

The sound of prophesy fulfilledAnd then I met your eyes

And I remember everything
And something in me dies
The night that I betrayed my king
