Tangled

MONORAL

If all you say is true
Please let me see
And all you hear is filled with love around me
The tangling is through
The tangling is throughYou have made my own destinations grow
You have made my own destinations growHand in hand we'll talk of nothing at allIf what you see is real
Please make me believe
And what you say can make me feel like a QueenThe tangling is through
The tangling is throughYou have made my own destinations grow
You have made my own destinations growHand in hand we'll talk of nothing at all
