

Better You Than Me

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

Oh no, there you go again
Maybe we should send you home
Lord knows, there's nothing you can't buy
Nothin' you can't find or ownMurder in your eyes
Of shadows in disguise
It's better you than me
No place left to go
Models of our own
It's better you than meLet go, let us see you try
Let us see you cry, let go
Hold on, is that you givin' in?
Thought you'd never bend or foldMurder in your eyes
Of shadows in disguise
It's better you than me
There's no place left to go
Models of our own
It's better you than meBetter you than me
Better you than me
Better you than me{No, try it again
Red light fever, baby}A perfect day never goes away
Somethings get to stay forever
The sun don't shine but I don't really care
It's just another kind of weather'Cause when I'm miles away
I'm still next to you
When I'm miles away
I'm still next to you
