Nothing More

Andrew Simple

Love, is a constant friend
Who will ever be right by your side.
And love is a hand to lend
It will pull you through this crazy life.

And love has you in its arms
It will hold you 'til the storms have passed.
Love, like a burning star
In our hearts it cannot help but last.

There's nothing more
Nothing more
Forget everything you thought you knew before
There's nothing more
Nothing more
So give it away
'Cause that's what love is for.

Love, is knowing smile
On the face of one who cares for you.
And love, like a wildfire
Is forever when it says I do.

There's nothing more
Nothing more
Forget everything you thought you knew before
There's nothing more
Nothing more
So give it away
'Cause that's what love is for.

Love, it will pierce the dark
Nothing in this world can break it's bond.
And love it will make it's mark
It will leave no hurt without it's sign.

There's nothing more
Nothing more
Forget everything you thought you knew before
There's nothing more

Nothing more
So give it away
'Cause that's what love is for.
