Falling Up

Collide

Spiral revelation
Morphis of change, what a sensation
Growing in from imagination
Opens the door in between spaces
Oh, dear, she explodes
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
And if these four walls tumble down
I'll see you
Scary incantations in the wrong hands
Feel the vibrations now I see all
No invitation in this playground
Into temptation, now I'm so small
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
And if these four walls tumble down
I'll see you
My imagination turning around
What a sensation, I want more
More information opens the door
No expectations, now I explore
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down

Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Falling down
Down
Falling up
Falling down
Falling up
Up
Falling up
