Burn

Nine Inch Nails

This world rejects me
This world threw me away
This world never gave me a chance
This world gonna have to pay
And I don't believe in your institutions
I did what you want me to
Like the cancer in your system
I've got a little surprise for you
Something inside of me
Has opened up its eyes
Why did you put it there
Did you not realize?
This thing inside of me
It screams the loudest sound
Sometimes I think I could
Burn
Burn
I look down there, where you're standing
Flock of sheep out on display
With all your lies bumped up around you
I can take it all away
Something inside of me
Has opened up its eyes
Why did you put it there
Did you not realize?
Something inside of me
It screams the loudest sound
Sometimes I think I could

I'm gonna burn this whole world down
I'm gonna burn this whole world down
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn
I never was a part of you burn

I am your saviour
(I never was a part of you burn)
I am corruption
(I never was a part of you burn)
I am the angel
(I never was a part of you burn)
Of your destruction
(I never was a part of you burn)
I am perversion
(I never was a part of you burn)
Secret desire
(I never was a part of you burn)
I am your future
(I never was a part of you burn)
Swallowed up in fire
(I never was a part of you burn)
