Contrabox

Good love, left me feeling kinda bad
Riled up, after all the fun we had
Put off, by your dirty meddlin'

Ain't that long since, I was your hootchie cootchie man
But you're getting off, spreading dirty lies
Ya broke promise, don't come as no surprise
No, no, that ain't gonna bother me

I ain't making a scene
So have it your way but you'll pay the price
You had ya chances, still got no answers

No leaving with your head held high
I ain't gonna run, I ain't gonna fight
So don't go making business, when you ain't got no witness

I guess you gotta let love lie, unjustified
So sad, turning on me like you did
Cold cash, got you like a sedative
Lifestyle, live the life of luxury

While somehow, I'm sleeping with the enemy
You'll get none of that money making lies
You can't bare to do better thinking twice
If you're taking me on, you're doing it all wrong yeah

And where d'ya get that attitude from?
So have it your way but you'll pay the price
You had ya chances, still got no answers

No leaving with your head held high
I ain't gonna run, I ain't gonna fight
So don't go making business, when you ain't got no witness

I guess you gotta let love lie, unjustified
I thought I was seeing something else
Something sweeter, nothing like the rest

But you were trouble dressed as tenderness
'Cos this deception that you played on me
Has left you where you didn't wanna be

But don't come knockin' here for sympathy
You have it your way but you'll pay the price
You had ya chances, still got no answers

No leaving with your head held high
I ain't gonna run, I ain't gonna fight
So don't go making business, when you ain't got no witness

I guess you gotta let love lie, unjustified
Your were the words that I won't forget
Mine are the ones that I won't regret
Made me feel good and I told you that

But you twist the knife, when I turned my back
You took a chance and you lost control
Got little heart and you got no soul
Guess all of these things
Gotta let them lie
(Just gotta let them lie)
