Live Forever

The Rasmus

Was it an angel
That knocked on my door?
Or was it the wind?
Was I still sleeping
Lost in a dream
Or was it you?

We swam in the fountains
Beneath the northern stars
We cried from the laughter
And died in each others' arms

Remember and live forever
Remember to live for love

I got back my letters
Ages ago
Your address unknown
I passed a stranger
Who had your eyes
Or was it you?

We ran through the graveyard
To catch the midnight sun
We danced drunk and naked
Until the summer was gone

Remember and live forever
Remember to live for love
Remember to live for love...

To live for love
