Sorry

Maria Mena

Vague sound of rain
Pierces through my song again
But I get distracted by the way his toes move
When he plays so I let it burnI just poured my heart out
There's bits of it on the floor

And I take what's left of it and rinse it
Under cold water and call him up for moreAnd I say, "Baby, yes, I feel stupid to call you
But I'm lonely and I don't think, you meant it when you said

You couldn't love me and I thought

Maybe if I kissed the way you do, you'd feel it too"He said, "I'm sorry

So sorry

I'm sorry

So sorry"He grabs my wrist

As my fingers turn into angry fists

And I whisper why can't you love me

I'll change for you, I'll play the partAnd I say, "Baby, so I feel stupid to call you

But I'm lonely and I don't think, you meant it when you said

You couldn't love me and I thought

Maybe if I kissed the way you do, you'd feel it too"He said, "I'm sorry

So sorry

I'm sorry

I am sorry"
