

Faceless

Red

A voice screaming from within, begging just to feel again
Can't find who I am without You near me
I'd give anything to live 'cause without You I don't exist
You're the only one who saves me from myself
I've been in this love and laid it to rest
And now I want to bow 'fore God's hand
I'm not, I'm not myself, feel like I'm someone else
Walled-in and faceless, so hollow, hollow inside
A part of me is dead, need You to live again
Can you replace this? I'm hollow, hollow and faceless
Shadows growing in my mind, ones I just can't leave behind
I'm not strong enough to pay this ransom
One more monster crawled inside but I swear I saw it die
Can You save me from the nothing I've become?
I've been in this love and laid it to rest
And now I'm one of the forgotten
I'm not, I'm not myself, feel like I'm someone else
Walled-in and faceless, so hollow, hollow inside
A part of me is dead, need You to live again
Can you replace this? I'm hollow, hollow and faceless
I'm faceless
I'm hollow and faceless
I'm not, I'm not myself, feel like I'm someone else
Walled-in and faceless, so hollow, hollow inside
A part of me is dead, need You to live again
Can you replace this? I'm hollow, hollow and faceless
Faceless
