Landslide

Brianna Carpenter

Did I speak too fast
don't you understand?
I've got more going on.
These lives we live,
we live separately
and yet we're just the same.

But you don't see
that the landslide
was gonna hit you when you least expected.
You don't see
that the landslide
was gonna hit you when you least expect.

I don't have the answers.
But I don't know where else to turn.
I don't have the answers
but I'll try.

I'll try.

All these woes we've always had doesn't matter anymore.
All these lies we've always had
it doesn't matter, it doesn't matter anymore.

Coz you don't see that the landslide
was gonna hit you when you least expected.
You don't see that the landslide
was gonna hit you when you least expect.

I don't have the answers
but I don't know where else to turn.
I don't have the answers
but I'll try.

I'll try.

For you I'll try.
