Black Soul

Trimada

Blackness is calling, you're enslaved by its rule
Obeying your madness, the weak-hearted fool
Possessed by evil, you're on their game
Hate is your motive to rule in their nameBiolytic evil, you kill and devour
You fight alterations to save all your power
You're betraying the youth you're blinding their eyes
You're selling them drugs, you're feeding them liesMadness reigns, evil affection
Blood and death, the endless pain
Madman's game, self-deception
Deceit and lies gonna rule the gameBlack soul you're breathing the poison of evil
Delusions of grandeur, the soul-eating plaque
Black soul your doomed to eternal damnation
You're melting in fire, the justice of fateThe contract is made and it's written in blood
Betraying the world to save what you've got
Distortion of truth keeps the evil alive
And you cut your own throat with a rust-poisoned knifeMadness reigns, evil affection
Blood and death, the endless pain
Madman's game, self-deception
Deceit and lies gonna rule the gameBlack soul you're breathing the poison of evil
Delusions of grandeur, the soul-eating plaque
Black soul your doomed to eternal damnation
You're melting in fire, the justice of fateWeakness is evil and evil is weak
They never will share the power they seek
You're a wealthless mere pawn under their spell
They've promised you heaven but they've sold you to hellMadness reigns, evil affection
Blood and death, the endless pain
Madman's game, self-deception
Deceit and lies gonna rule the gameBlack soul you're breathing the poison of evil
Delusions of grandeur, the soul-eating plaque
Black soul your doomed to eternal damnation
You're melting in fire, the justice of fate
Black soul you're breathing the poison of evil
Delusions of grandeur, the soul-eating plaque
Black soul your doomed to eternal damnation
You're melting in fire, the justice of fate
