Talk About

Jack Ingram

We've got to fight just to find something to talk about
'Coz it ain't right that we've got nothing to say
I always thought I could run, now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something to sayIt used to be we could walk around in silence
But you could see things were good
But now the pain of what ain't said well it's gone to my head
'Cause anyone can see things ain't good'Cause I ain't saying there ain't no more love here
It's just that I fear something's wrong
Can't you see that I'm doing the best I can now
To figure out how we can get alongSo we've got to fight just to find something to talk aboutWell I ain't saying there ain't no more love here
It's just that I fear somethings wrong
Can't you see that I'm doing the best I can now
To figure out how we can get alongWe've got to fight just to find something to talk about
'Cause it ain't right that we've got nothing to say
I always thought I could run now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something to sayYeah, I always thought I could run
Now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something I say
