

Luna and the Silver Sunset

Mortimer Nova

unsubstantial misinterpretation a glimpse of infinite reflection consequential failed alleviation rehearsed in the mirror of my shadowgather up your heart and go the sweeter fruit still has to grow gather up your heart and go the sweeter fruit still has to growbarren and empty untreaded water is no place for a fool to walk mischief and wonder hidden in the bushes for a shattered whisper from an angelgather up your heart and go
gather up your heart and go the sweeter fruit still has to growconfessions lead to misfortune and creation only leads to treason wandering over, over your footsteps serenading your fragmented figuregather up your heart and go
gather up your heart and go
gather up your heart and go
gather up your heart and go the sweeter fruit still has to growexhale and breathe in the silver sunset
