Little Girl Poems

Piana

red skirt swings smell of sunshine looking at you from behind, thinking about you in 10 years you haven't changed at all looking far with your sad eyes the wind blew the memory of day we met

if you would stay with me i could do anything

can you do me a favor?
please don't let go of my hand if you would stay with me I could if you would with me I could
