New Energy

Unwound

where's your energy, there's no energy, where's your energy, there's no energy.
desperate kicks, faster still, what about the future of what it is?
state your age, set the stage, start a fire for something new.
desperate kids, nasty / sick, what about the future of what it is?
state your rage, wreck the stage, funeral pyre for something new.
what it is, what it is, what it is, what it is?
