Faithless

Injected

could you be lost are you so free, do you long to be you know it's such a mystery how you washed up over me and i couldn't speak, i couldn't breathe, lest i drown but it's my kind i'll never be cruel and i'll always play the fool to be as loveless, as shameless as you.

but i'm so blind i'll do it again i feel your eyes sink in so faithless as you've been.
yes i'm so lost i am not free but i long to be when life goes down, do you fell as though you're gonna drown you're going down
