

All I Can Do

Mack Starks

Yesterday I thought you'd stay
I thought you'd see things my way
But now I see my hopes may be dead
I should have known when you said
    I was the one you wanted
Wanting meant nothing more than today
    All I can do is cry over you
    And hope you return someday
    All I can do is cry over you
    Ever since you've gone away
    Every road that I follow
    Leaves me with no tomorrow
I need someone to show me the way
    All I can do is cry over you
    And hope you return someday
    All I can do is cry over you
    Ever since you've gone away
