

Affair

Cherelle

What do you call this thing we have
Am I your woman, are you my man?
Could it be love or just a fling?
Maybe your body, it agrees with meAffair, I don't need commitment
I don't need a man to tell me how to feel
Affair, I don't want a promise
All I really need is to be close to youI want respect and I'll state my case
'Cause, baby, I won't take
All your loveliness in my faceSo hear me loud and clear
Don't matter if you flirt
As long as you're discreet
And make sure nobody's hurt like meAffair, I don't need commitment
I don't need a man to tell me how to feel
Affair, I don't want a promise
All I really need is to be close to youAffair, I don't need commitment
I don't need a man to tell me how to feel
Affair, I don't want a promise
All I really need is to be close to youAffairI don't need, I don't need, no
I don't need
I don't need, I don't need, no
I don't need, I don't needAffair, affair, affairI don't need commitment
I don't need a man to tell me how to feel
I don't want a promise
All I really need is to be close to youAffair, affair
