

Apocalypse

The Owls

There is really no back door
You can't get out of here
You will just fall through the trapped door
And, it's probably the gateway to hell
And you won't be back this way to tell

Can you read the paper with out crying
They say the ocean floor is dying
And the fisherman caught a talking fish

He said "Get ready for the apocalypse."
"Are you ready for the apocalypse?"

There is no back door
Just fall through the trapped door
It's a beautiful trapped door

There is no back door
Just fall through the trapped door.
Thank God for the trapped door.
