Sing to Save My Life

Seabird

Movements they make you faint at heart
They show you, they show you where to start
And you have always been
My one and only second windBring forth the ocean
It swells over my mind
Sing for devotion
And sing to save my lifeYou know you gotta be alone tonight
'Cause there's no excuse, no reason to fight
Please, don't come and watch from my lawn
'Cause I'm capable, yes, I'm capable on my ownBring forth the ocean
It swells over my mind
Sing for devotion
And sing to save my lifeYeah, my love, you're sensational
Yeah, my love, you're sensational
Yeah, you're sensational
Yeah, I'm just sensationalOh, you're sensational
You're sensationalBring forth the ocean
It swells over my mind
Sing for devotion
And sing to save my lifeSing for devotion
Sing to save my lifeSensational, sensational
You're sensational, yeah
