

Why Generation

Fidlar

There's a secret we wanna know
But you keep it, yeah you keep it for your own
And all the kids all the kids wanna know
Where your heart belongs, where do I go
And they tell you why generation
Why generation
Why generation
Why generation
Why

There's a secret we wanna know
How the hell, how the hell are we supposed to know
How to live in the twenty first century
When every move you make everyone can see
So they tell you, why generation
Why generation
Why generation
Why generation

I remember the morning on my parents' bed
TV screen was burning through my head
There's a bad, bad man in our land
Why'd he do it, will we ever understand
And they tell you why generation
Why generation
Why generation
My generation
why generation
My generation
Why generation
My generation
Why generation
