20th Century Man

Sammy Hagar

Auh, I don't know what I want, I can't get no peace
All I really know is, I don't need no breeze
Hangin' religion around my back
Be a science-fiction feeling of factI don't know what I want, I can't get no peace
I got two fine cars, a house and a job
And by the time I'm 35, I'll be a fat slob
I don't care about 1985'Cause if I ain't dead, you know, I'll be half alive
I don't care about 1985C'mon, get it while you can, there ain't much left to take
Go on, get it while you can, there ain't much left to takeGet it while you can, just like a 20th century man
You'll be a 20th century manA 20th century man
I'm a 20th century man
(Yeah)
Aw shit
Hey, get outta there
Watch itHey, shut the door man, what's the matter with ya?
Ah, don't know what I want, I can't get no peace'Cause I'm a 20th century man
Just a 20th, century manI'm a 20th century man
Be a 20th century manGet it while you can, there ain't much left to take
No
Go on
Get it while you can, there ain't much left to take
You got taGet it while you can, just like a 20th century man
Go, on be a 20th century manI'm a 20th century man
Just a 20th century manI'm a 20th, century man
Just a
Auh
I'm a, just a
