What We Ain't Got

Home Free

We all want what we ain't got,
Our favorite doors are always locked.
On a higher hill with a taller top,
We all want what we ain't got.We aren't happy where we are,
There's greener grass in the neighbor's yard,
A bigger house or a faster car,
We aren't happy where we are.All I want is what I had,
I'd trade it all just to get her back,
She's moving on, but I guess I'm not,
Yeah, we all want what we ain't got.We all wish it didn't hurt,
When you try your best, and it doesn't work,
And goodbye's such a painful word,
We all wish it didn't hurt.All I want is what I had,
I'd trade it all just to get her back,
She's moving on, but I guess I'm not.
Yeah, we all want what we ain't got.All I want is what I had,
Yeah, I'd trade it all just to get her back,
She's moving on, but I guess I'm not,
Yeah, we all want what we ain't got.Yeah, I wanted the world until my whole world stopped,
You know a love like that ain't easily forgot.
I guess we all want what we ain't got,
Yeah, we all want what we ain't got.
