Within Me

Gretchen Parlato

Just like a small ghost in a box full of thought, full of laughs, oh full of tears full of love, full of hopes, full of fearsJust like a blue fish in a tank I can swim, i can dance all day long in my tank, in my private seaI've got my sun, my clouds, my rain I've got lakes, I've got high mountains to climb within me, within me, within meHigh trees, tall boulders bow at me apes and snakes eat in the palm of my hand in my world, in my harmonyBut when you walk through the door my sun, my clouds, my rain leave me but when your dark eyes hit mine my deep green jungle fades away
