Her First Mistake

Lyle Lovett

Once upon a time ago

Way up in the land of sleet and snow

How this fairy tale would go

I could not have knownI had searched around this world so mean

From Livingstone to Palestine

Trying to pursue my dream

Of loveIt was then I met this girl so fine

She made me think so fast I left my thought behind

And I tried to pass for a sophisticated

Northern manI said, "Why, yes my dear I know exactly what you mean

Because theres not so much I havent done or seen

And may I say your eyes are the loveliest

Shade of jade"I said, "Come on baby

Come on baby

Come on baby"It was then I knew I had made my first mistake

She did not even start to wait

And as she turned around to walk away

This is what she had to sayShe told me "Man, I come from way down South

Ive got a picket fence with a picket house

And I dont need no fast talking northern man

Like you around"I said, "Well, come on baby

Come on baby

Come on baby"Honey, I dont know what you just heard

But Alabama is my favorite word

And Birmingham

Is a long way from hereWhy, I could see the light began to shine

She turned back around her eyes met mine

And suddenly the whole world became

A better placeEven if it was only for an instant

Because it was then I knew I had made my

Second mistakeShe told me, "Man that was a real good try

But Alabamas not where I reside

I come from where the river is wide

And the crawfish hide"I said, "Well come on baby

Come on baby

Come on baby"Honey, I dont know what you just heard

But Louisiana is my favorite word

And New Orleans

Is a long way from hereShe just looked at me and shook her head

"Your lines are pretty sad" she said
"You are a lonely, weak, pathetic man

If this is doing the best you can"It was then I knew I had made my third mistake
Yes, three strikes right across the plate
And as I hollered honey, "Please wait"
She was goneI said, "Well come on baby
Come on baby

Come on baby"Honey, I dont know what you just heard
Bartender set em up are my favorite words

Because the love I need

Is a long way from hereOh the love I need
Is a long way from hereYes well, there I sat so all alone
Like a king who sits upon his throne
And whose kingdom may have just gone home
With another kingdomSo as you can imagine much to my surprise

When the door was flung back open wide
It was a miracle, she walked inside

And pulled her chair up next to meAnd thats when she knew
She had made her

First mistakeWell honey, I dont know what you just heard
But come on baby are my favorite words
And where were going

Is a long way from hereAnd where were going to
Is a long way from hereSo like I said before, I could not have known
How this fairy tale would finally go
Still the only certain thing for sure
Is what I do not knowSo like the years and all the seasons pass
And like the sand runs through the hour glass
I just keep on running faster, chasing the happily

I am ever after just keep on running faster
Chasing the happily
I am ever after
