

Retribution

Front Line Assembly

The smell of ether
An orange flare
Confined submission
Fills the air Hope and glory
Unreachable now
Nervous glances
Collide somehow Plasma fluid
Quiets the thirst
A dead calm rises
Who will be first The fading signal of distress
Counting the wounded, no time to rest
A final prayer, this ship's going down
Faces lie forward, hands are all bound The fading signal of distress
Counting the wounded, no time to rest
A final prayer, this ship's going down
Faces lie forward, hands are all bound Burned with gas
The mask goes on
Subversive warfare
No right from wrong Stepping forward
Into the unknown
Stepping forward
Restricted zone Frozen water
Reflecting the light
Setting the enemy
In our sights The fading signal of distress
Counting the wounded, no time to rest
A final prayer, this ship's going down
Faces lie forward, hands are all bound The fading signal of distress
Counting the wounded, no time to rest
A final prayer, this ship's going down
Faces lie forward, hands are all bound
