

English Trees

Crowded House

English trees in my garden
We planted seeds in a faraway land
In between the palms and the succulent grove They lose their leaves in the winter
Mark the seasons for him and for her
Once upon a time in the fallen snow
Up against the sky made a silhouette show England cries and she plays for him
The chords entwined like a requiem
Although it's springtime and color is new
In Regent's Park I will mourn for you And I must be wise somehow
'Cause my heart's been broken down It's so far to fall
And so hard to climb
Nothing's sadder, I know
Than the passing of time Won't forget me
You won't forget me English trees in my garden
Summer's missed you, my darling
Yet all your crimes are forgiven
Yet all your crimes are forgiven
And I must be wise somehow And England cries, oh
There's English trees in my garden
