

Her Name (feat. Zach Burns)

ONEDUO

It's Amazing
I've been, Chasing love
Am I crazy? maybe
Call my bluff
Let's rewind
Take my time to Look at you
Would you mind if we stayed
And had a few?

I've been chasin

Does it phase ya?

Watching waiting I'm pressing my hand across your face
I'm wondering if I can learn to live without your taste
And I've been thinkin you and I could learn to lead the way
The funny thing about it is that I don't even know her name

Waiting by the door unlocked it's you and me praying that this thing don't stop feelin like a dream when you're on my clock
I was seventeen with the world on top

Now I'm sitting 20 with 1 in my pocket
Think I'd by your love but I already got it Think I'm playing games with ya girl just stop it dont you even think I'm worried about it
No,no

Watching waiting I'm pressing my hand across your face
I'm wondering if I can learn to live without your taste
And I've been thinkin you and I could learn to lead the way
The funny thing about it is that I don't even know her name
