Triggerman

Alice Cooper

I ain't got a name
I don't gotta face
No fingerprints or DNA
I ain't got no eyes
I don't got a tongue
But I know what's going on
I'm deaf and dumbI'm pure non-entity
Don't even look for me
I watch you when you sleepI am the triggerman
I am the underhand
I'll keep you on your knees
I am the brain police
I am the triggerman
I am the underhand
I'm full of dirty tricks
I'm twice as smart
And certainly twice as sickI am always out of sight
A shadow in the mist
I don't need an alibi 'cos
I don't existI'm pure non-entity
Don't even look for me
I watch you when you sleepI am the triggerman
I am the underhand
I'll keep you on your knees
I am the brain police
I am the triggerman
I am the underhand
I'm full of dirty tricks
I'm twice as smart
And certainly twice as sickHe's sick, he's really, really sick
He's sick, he's sick, he's really, really sick
He's really, really sick
He's sick, he's sick, he's really, really sickI'm pure non-entity
Don't even look for me
I watch you when you sleepI am the triggerman
I am the underhand
I'll keep you on your knees
I am the brain police
I am the triggerman

I am the underhand
I'm full of dirty tricks
I'm twice as smart
And certainly twice as sickHe's sick, he's sick, he's really, really sick
He's sick, he's sick, he's really, really sick
He's sick, he's sick, he's really, really sick
He's sick, he's really, really sickHe's sick
