Circles

James Maslow

I know when you want it
Yes, you want it
But you're never alone
Just let me show you,
I can show you
I'll do it better than beforeWaiting my turn for your world Ã¢EËœcause it hurts without you, without you
Taking some time just to find I'm alright when I'm not with you
Look what I've been throughBut you always keep me running round in circles
(Got me running)
You always keep me scratching out the surface
(Got me running)
You never let the light behind the curtains
Now you always keep me burning by the circles
Yeah, I keep running round in CIRCLES.You think you own me, you don't own me
Girl you're losing control
So, let me show you
That I can show you
I don't need you anymoreWaiting my turn for your world Ã¢EËœcause it hurts without you, without you
Taking some time just to find I'm alright when I'm not with you
Look what I've been throughBut you always keep me running round in circles
(Got me running)
You always keep me scratching out the surface
(Got me running)
You never let the light behind the curtains
Now you always keep me burning by the circles
Yeah, I keep running round in CIRCLES.You always keep me running right back to you,
I know you like me coming right back to you
So, baby I'll keep running right back to you
Or I'll just keep on running, no no no(x2)
But you always keep me running round in circles
(Got me running)
You always keep me scratching out the surface
(Got me running)
You never let the light behind the curtains
Now you always keep me burning by the circles
Yeah, I keep running round in CIRCLES.
