Whispering Your Name

Alison Moyet

When she said that you were through
I thought that there was nothing that I could do
Just because she ran right here
Doesn't mean I interfered

Now I'm wondering if we can feel the same 'Cause she keeps whispering your name

She keeps on whispering your name

Like she's just waitingShe once told me how she felt

Didn't just want me to hear it from someone else

There were unknowns she couldn't know

But she hoped you two would grow

And when you didn't she was brought to me in painAnd she keeps whispering your name

She keeps on whispering your name

Like she's just waitingIf it's just a little fling, a simple thing

I'll try not to pretend

If it's just for jealousy, she's using me

That might be hard to mendOh what else can I do

But try to give her more than she got from you

And when she wakes up suddenly

And she says your name to me

I'll just hope it's force of habit and not needAnd she keeps whispering your name

She keeps on whispering your name

Like she's just waitingOh tell me what is fair

When nothing's wrong And she just stares Like she's just waiting
