

Rain Holds

The Golden Palominos

I hope you find it
Whatever it is
I wish you time enough
I wish you peace of mind
Something real
Something you can feel
I hope the rain holds
You'll see it coming
Whatever it is
It will appear to be
Something strange
You will meet it in the same way
Will it be smooth?
Will it be clean?
I wish you luck
I hope the rain holds
I have a photograph of a heart
Held by two outreaching hands
She gives away the thing she needs
In order to live and breathe
I wish you well
I wish you time enough
I wish you something real
Something you can feel
I hope the rain holds
I have a memory
Of her face
She's standing
In a blue room
She gives away the thing she needs
In order to live and breathe
I wish you well
I wish you time enough
I wish you piece of mind
I wish you something real
Something you can feel
I hope the rain holds
I hope the rain holds
