Sea Lungs

Baroness

I can't breathe
Nor can I see the sun
It's so cold in here
Where did I go wrong?All these days
I've sail'd cross these wicked seas and I have petitioned the deep
For water to keep me cleanWhen my ship comes in I'll find a way to breathe again"Breathe in deep
Let the sea fill your lungs
It's better to brace for death
Than die for a promised land""Why so sad?
Your tears are no match for mine
I am eternal sea
And you are a drowning man"When my ship comes in I'll find a way to breathe againWhen my ship comes in
I'll find a way to breathe againWhen my ship comes in I'll find a way to breathe again
