

Run for Your Life

Sammy Hagar

There's a line, for every lover
In the makeup on your face
There's a look in your eye
Says you realize your fate And you've a mind, to rediscover
Tho we're half way through the race
And the neon lights keep calling you
To this place Run for your life, girl
The band has packed away
You better run for your life, girl
Get away Run for your life, girl
The band has moved on
You'll be runnin', for your life
From now on Well, your nights were filled with laughter
Now your days are fallin' rain
And your wondering when those stars
Are gonna shine again You've got photographs to remind you
Of all the faces that you knew
But I'm sure they've got no time
To think of you Run for your life, girl
The band has packed away
You better run for your life, girl
Get away Run for your life, girl
The band has moved on
You'll be runnin', for your life
From now on Hey, Little Miss Lonely
Tho your world is falling apart
You've got a feeling inside you
And loving in your heart Hey, Little Miss Lonely
Don't you waste your life away
You put the bad times behind you
Tomorrow's a brand new day
(Yeah) Run for your life, girl
The band has packed away
You better run for your life, girl
Get away Run for your life, girl
The band has moved on
You'll be runnin', for your life
From now on Miss Lonely
There'll be better days, and you can find the way

Ohh, Miss Lonely

There'll be better ways, and you can find them, somedayRun for your life, girl

The band has packed away

You better run for your life, girl

Get awayRun for your life, girl

The band has moved on

You'll be runnin', for your life

From now onRun for your life, girl

The band has packed away

You better run for your life, girl

Get awayRun for your life, girl

The band has moved on

You'll be runnin', for your life

From now onRun for your life, girl

The band has packed away

You better run for your life, girl

Get awayRun for your life, girl

The band has moved on

You'll be runnin', for your life

From now on
