Trigger

Alex Lloyd

It's a new day, wasting away
Nothing to lose my friend
By the street lamp, watching them move
On to the bus againYou're the old school, breaking the rules
Party till the end
So you feel more, something for
Hoping to make amendsDo you need somebody?
Could it be anyone?
But I know the answer
You're somebodyIf you feel this way again
And these days you know, they get better
If you feel this way again
And these days can only get betterStar grace over your face
Into the night again
Its a cruel life with nothing to bear
When everyone's a friendIts a sweet song all gone wrong
Dont seem like it will end
Put the blue sky into your life
Hoping, make amendsDo you need somebody?
Could it be anyone?
But I know the answer
Youre somebodyIf you feel this way again
And these days can only get better
If you feel this way again
And these days can only get betterSink, sink, its coming around
Living it up and feel it down
Say, say, 'cos coming around
Living it up and feel itSink, sink, its coming around
Living it up and feel it down
Say, say, 'cos coming around
Living it up and feel itThis now, now can get better
Feel this way again, yeah
And these days can only get better
Feel this way again, yeah
And this now can only get better
