

Heartbeat Overdrive

Ballet School

You know you catch my eye
I see you looking my way
Waiting for you with a heartbeat overdrive And everyone here knows why
I gotta do this my way
Coming for you with a heartbeat overdrive Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell you Crescent moon high in the sky
I'm starting something with this guy
Feeling right, starry starry night night
My heartbeat overdrive Cause I got one thing on my mind
I've been crushing like orange and ice
Waiting for you
With a heartbeat overdrive Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
(oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah)
Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
(oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah) I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell you Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
Hey, woohoo, hey, woohoo, oh yeah
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell
I should tell, I should tell
I should tell you but I can't tell you You know you catch my eye
I see you looking my way
Waiting for you with a heartbeat overdrive And everyone here knows why
I gotta do this my way
Coming for you with a heartbeat overdrive
