All Time Low

Stick To Your Guns

(x2)
My kindness has been mistaken for a weakness disrespect and carelessness is result of your selfishness..(YEAH!)
(LET'S GO!)I stood right by your side and gave you all my time and in return you took all of my pride so I'm here to take back whats mine.. and your friendship I still keep but honestly how far must you go to an all time low..*(understood words)*I see right through your disguise I see the lies you hide behind and this cant stop until you realize a thing or two about sacrifice.. (SACRIFICE)whats done is done and its time to move on so lets forgive and lets forget and put back into the past!
