For My Lorraine

Blume

My dear Lorraine,
Do you remember when
We used to dance
Under rainy skies?

Our passion enlightened the darkness
Of many frosty years.
We enjoyed every tear, every kiss,
Every moment we spent together.

Oh please, tell me Lorraine,
What am I supposed to do now?
Oh please, tell me Lorraine,
What does life mean without your love?
Maybe one day
Weâ€™ll meet again.

My sweet Lorraine,
May your body rest in peace,
But let your spirit
Be always next to mine.

Lead my way from the Heavens above,
Let your light shine down on me.
Hear my voice, oh sad torment of mine!
Join me in my solitude.

Oh please, tell me Lorraine,
What am I supposed to do now?
Oh please, tell me Lorraine,
What does life mean without your love?
Maybe one day
Weâ€™ll meet again.

Lyrics submitted by djwave.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/