

No One Will Be a Stranger

Dax Riggs

when the light is done and the shadow leaves i watch on the weather a moth on my sleeve but in this hurricane night I'm like a ghost come to life invoke this no one, no one will be a stranger
 spitting this sis like i was pissing in the wind of a thousand years so forget your smile and taste your tears to forget your smile and taste your tears
