Run into My Arms (Interlude)

Dawson Coyle

I'm tired i'm broke, cant see whats ahead
I know I should be there instead, where you were hanging there for me.

I made some mistakes maybe more than a few you say that i still love you, its OK, anything for you.

You say that I'm gonna be fine, I'll get by
just run into my arms.
your dept is paid out, washed it all away, my child
just run into my arms.

I've looked for the one that I'll never let go
I know that i need to take it slow I'm impatient, a mess, and a fool your saying your tired but what does that mean feels like I'm waiting in eternity, for the one that I'll love

You say that I'm gonna be fine, I'll get by
just run into my arms.
your dept is paid out, washed it all away, my child
just run into my arms.

Lyrics Submitted by shayla dickerson

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/