

September

Belle Plain Revival

last time i saw you you were dancing out in the rain it was a cold september night and i wanted to tell you then didn't want to cause you any pain i knew something just didn't seem right it had been pouring down but the moon light was shining it was hard to see through the rain but i knew you'd been crying and when i saw you there

standing in the rain
i got this feeling, down in my bones and you asked me if i cared i'm so far away
tell me to never leave you alone
on a cold september dawn

last thing that i heard you'd been living in fort worth tell me how's the lone star state well i've just been livin it up in my one bedroom apartment tryin to keep myself from going insane well i

when i saw you there
standing in the rain
i got this feeling, down in my bones
and you asked me if i cared
i'm so far away
tell me to never leave you alone
won't ever leave you alone a cold september dawn

(solo)

like when i saw you there

standing in the rain
and i got this feeling
and i got this feeling
 yes i did but if i cared i wouldn't be so far away and i would never leave you alone never leave you alone
 on a cold september dawn

Lyrics Submitted by Ethan

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>