

Creosote

Deep Reduction

Passing under barren skies

Waiting for our worlds to collide, and there you are

 All alone

 Feeling bad

Interstate movin' again

Barrel through thick and thin, side by side

 To survive like creosote

Born under a widespread changes

 The search for higher reason

 Learning the ropes okay

 But fate just runs you around

Born under a widespread changes

 The search for higher reason

 Learning the ropes okay

 But fate just runs you around

From Memphis to New Orleans

In and out of railroad dreams, you're out there

 In scenes

 Passing by

Everyone faces what they deserve

Carousel to claim or curse, sticking around

 At least

 For the ride

Born under a widespread changes

 The search for higher reason

 Learning the ropes okay

 But fate just runs you around
