

Intro: Skool Luv Affair

BTS

First encounter, first text, first phone call

First date, first kiss

In our own space, I want everything to be a first with you

I have an eating disorder, whatever I eat, I'm still hungry for you

The word "addiction" can't express all of this

Describing a girl like you is impossible, it transcends the poetic

It's because of you, like a capital letter, I want to place you first in my life

A good house, a good car, those things can't be happiness but I want to give it to you("Hold on, hold on, turn off the music for a second"

"Why?"

"Hyung, this isn't it, hyung"

"What?"

"What's up with that last line 'doo go bwa' (which means 'just wait')"

"It's actually 'joo go pa' (which means 'want to give you')"

"Oh really? Well let me show you my style. Give me the music! Yeah, that's right, this is it! Hyung, this kinda style! Love should be hopeful!")

Confessing my love without hesitating is my style

If it's for you, I'm the type to sacrifice my body

I'll always shine the light on you girl

This is a love stage for you and me

We're blinded by love, sweet and playful

Our future is bright and dazzling, colorful

If I have you, it's like I have everything, like a milli

The door of love has opened now with you, go in ("Ahh, this is awesome! Love should be hopeful!")

"How can life always be hopeful? This is not the Bang Tan style."

"Then what is it?"

"Bang Tan style is hip-hop"

"Hip-hop?"

"Let's go")

BTS, the way we love

Whether you're in your teens or twenties, love is all the same

RM, so now I'm telling you the story

I loved this much before, how about you?

This is just an intro shouting bout my whole mind and body

You know that her refusals and bad words could never stop me

They could never retard me, this is my ideology

Who in the world can dampen my heart's blood? Nobody (Wassup) I'll ask you again (Wassup) How about yo?

If you haven't loved yet, how about doing it like me?
A person's emotions is so strange
I'm the one who makes you smile but you go to the bastard who makes you cry
(I said) Yeah that's love (I said) yeah that's love
Some may call me a loser but I'm really OK
As if I've never been hurt by love before
As if I'll give even more when she takes away my all
Wassup
When in love, be passionate
When you're singing, make it prickly
Passionate and prickly
When we're in love, we're passionate
When we're singing, we're prickly
Passionate and prickly
This is Bang Tan style
This is Bang Tan style
This is Bang Tan style
Bang Tan style, Bang Tan style
Wassup
